Hipshack

Hipshack is a rock-pop-funk-soul party band that's totally committed to keeping the dance floor packed. Known as the "Swiss Army Knife" of bands, they perform the classics, modern hits and everything in between. These lifelong musicians display the highest degree of musicianship, while maintaining an intimate connection with their audience. Their influences range from James Brown and The Beatles to the Police and Metallica. With the ability to navigate vast musical territory, Hipshack is ready to entertain all who come!

Outside of performing in hundreds of clubs, colleges, festivals, corporate and private events and venues in the USA, Hipshack's other successes include:

- Modern Bride Magazine "one of 150 best Bands for hire in the USA." 2005-2007.
- Performing throughout the United States for the US Tennis Association
ESPN-the Tennis Channel - US Open, Davis Cup and Fed Cup Tournaments
- Performing in the Farrelly Brothers movie—"SHALLOW HAL."
- Opening for such artists as Mother's Finest, Charlie Hunter, Ray Charles, Steely Dan and Michael McDonald as well as performing with Edwin McCain.
- New York International Independent Film Festival - Madison Square Garden. Best Movie Soundtrack "a Bettor's Life."

The Band

Scott McCloud (Electric bass/Vocals), has been performing in the United States as a full time musician for the past 20 years playing every style from jazz, funk, rock, reggae, rhythm & blues to country. After winning the Downbeat Magazine award for "Best Instrumental Jazz Soloist" (1992) and receiving his BM in Music Performance from Winthrop University (1994), he relocated to Dallas/FT Worth to earn his Masters Degree in Jazz Studies from the University of North Texas (1998).

Upon returning from Texas in 1998, Scott assembled a group of local funk/jazz musicians known as the "Scott McCloud Group/Trio." The "Scott McCloud Trio" CD was favorably reviewed by Jazz Times Magazine in it's May 2000 Jam Band issue along other artists as Medeski Martin & Wood, Galactic and Soulive. In 1999 Scott assembled a new Jazz/Funk/Rock group called Hipshack. Hipshack went on to record 2 CD's and perform around the United States with the United States Tennis Association.

Scott has performed and recorded with: jazz legend Slide Hampton, Wycliffe Gordon, Edwin McCain, University of North Texas Lab Bands, the Jon Thornton Swing Thing, the Beloved Praise Band, the Scott Jeffrey's Band and the Mighty-Mighty Men among others.

Curtis Wingfield received his first drumset as a Christmas present just before his 3rd birthday. He then began studying piano at age 4, receiving superior ratings and high placements at regional, state, and national piano competitions. Returning to the drums at age 11, Curtis began studying the instrument much more seriously, eventually at East Carolina University where he studied percussion performance and music theory with a concentration in jazz.

Since then, Curtis has toured the US extensively with Bellyfull, Gongzilla (replacing Gary Husband) and The Afromotive. Curtis' work with the Afromotive also led to him being featured in both Modern Drummer and DRUM! Magazines. He has also studied and performed with Jeff Sipe, Jeff Coffin, and Steve Kimock.

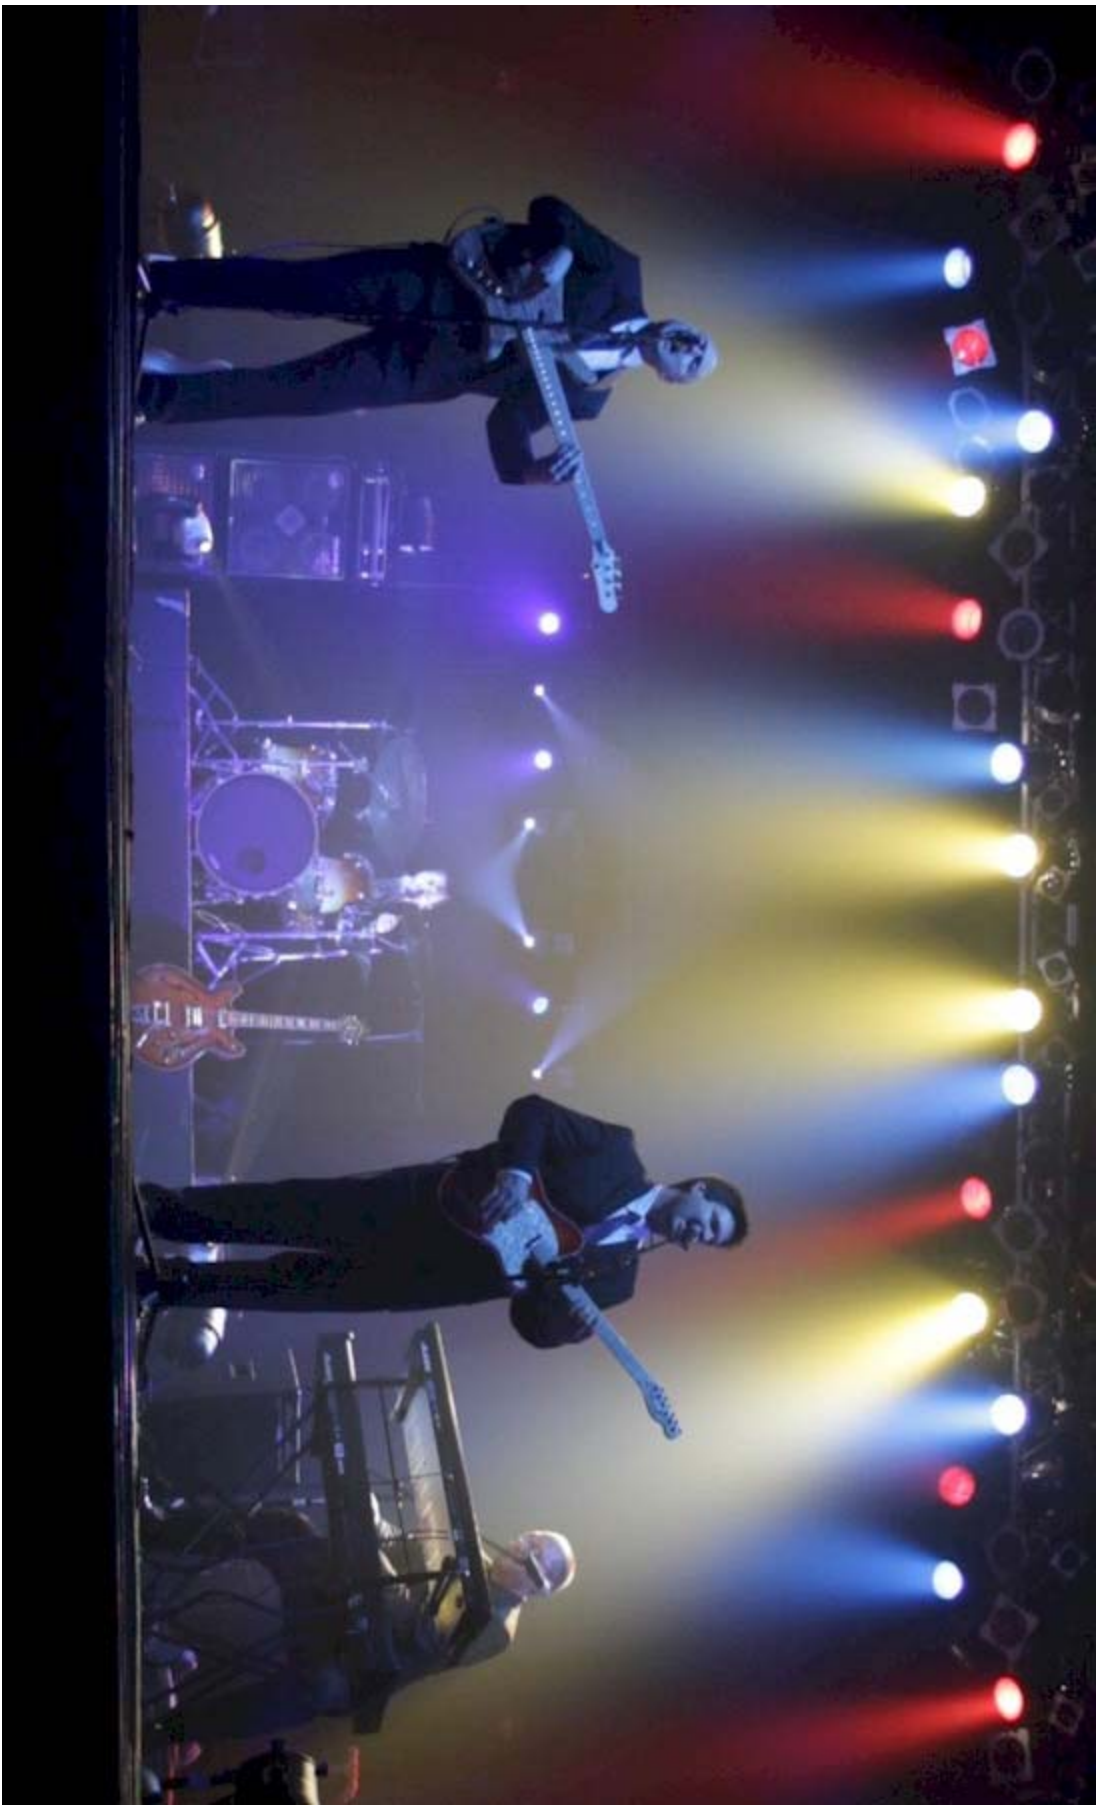

Curtis owns and operates a very successful private music school (Music Matters) in Charlotte, and aspires to improve the level of music education in public schools.

Jeremy Shaw (Guitar/Vocals) is a performing, recording, and song-writing artist based in Charlotte, NC. He blends a wide variety of styles and traditions into his own unique sound. His guitar work ranges from acoustic finger-style to angular modern jazz. Jeremy studied composition and performance at the Berklee College of Music in Boston.

He has worked professionally with numerous acts and musicians throughout the north and southeast for over fifteen years. Jeremy has extensive studio recording experience and appears on many CD releases. He maintains a sizable student roster in Charlotte, NC.

Jeremy was born in Utica and attended the Berklee College of Music, where he studied composition and performance. Jeremy spent the next several years in Boston and has performed with members of Phish, G Love & Special Sauce, Moon Boot Lover, Soulive, Schleigho, and others, as they passed through Boston. After almost a decade in Boston, Jeremy moved back south eventually settling in Charlotte, NC, where he lives with his family.

Here's our list of the most popular and talented wedding entertainers around, from celebrity favorites to budget-friendly picks. Find your big-day band or DJ now!

150 HOT BANDS AND DJs

NORTH CAROLINA

Hipshack

Charlotte, 704/560-6791, hipshack.com

This three- to four-piece band, noted by planners as being “a little Dave Matthewsy,” can play all types of rock, funk or soul. (Added claim to fame: a brief appearance in the movie Shallow Hal.)

Editor's Letter

Wait a second while I unplug my iPod. Okay, now I can hear my phone ring... and it's yet another person calling to ask me about wedding music. A friend from Florida and another from New York recently rang and e-mailed... both struggling to find the perfect DJ to amp up their parties. The right sound is so crucial to the success of a reception and there are so many new trends in wedding music now—from unexpected first-dance songs to a blend of both band and DJ at a party to the use of iPods during a DIY affair. We cover it all in our special (first-ever) music section. We list 150 of the hottest bands, DJs and entertainment companies from across the nation to help you track down and achieve that perfect vibe—whether you're into rock, jazz, country or a little bit of everything. I got a kick out of discovering some celebrities' Do Not Play lists along the way. (No "Electric Slide" for Travis Barker, and Michelle Branch vetoed "The Macarena"!)

Meanwhile, I figured you could use some help in another area as well—getting everything on your to-do list accomplished quickly and efficiently. Hey, I know that you're planning your wedding while you're at work (we see you signing onto ModernBride.com in droves around noon), so we created a list of 18 wedding-planning tasks you can complete in 60 minutes or less (i.e., your lunch hour). But the article that I'm guessing is going to get your undivided attention is how to spend less and get more. We offer 20 (count 'em) money-saving ideas. Leaving you enough leftover cash to download some more songs onto your iPod, perhaps?
